

What is a Credit Risk Governance Review? (Placeholder)

In one sentence

A structured assessment of the policies, systems, roles, and decision routines that determine how credit risk is managed across the lending lifecycle.

What it covers

- Governance structures and accountability
- Credit decisioning discipline and documentation
- Monitoring rhythms and early warning practices
- Restructuring and recovery readiness
- Reporting clarity for executives and boards

What you get

- A clear diagnostic of gaps and priority actions
- A practical roadmap for strengthening execution
- Recommendations aligned to institutional realities